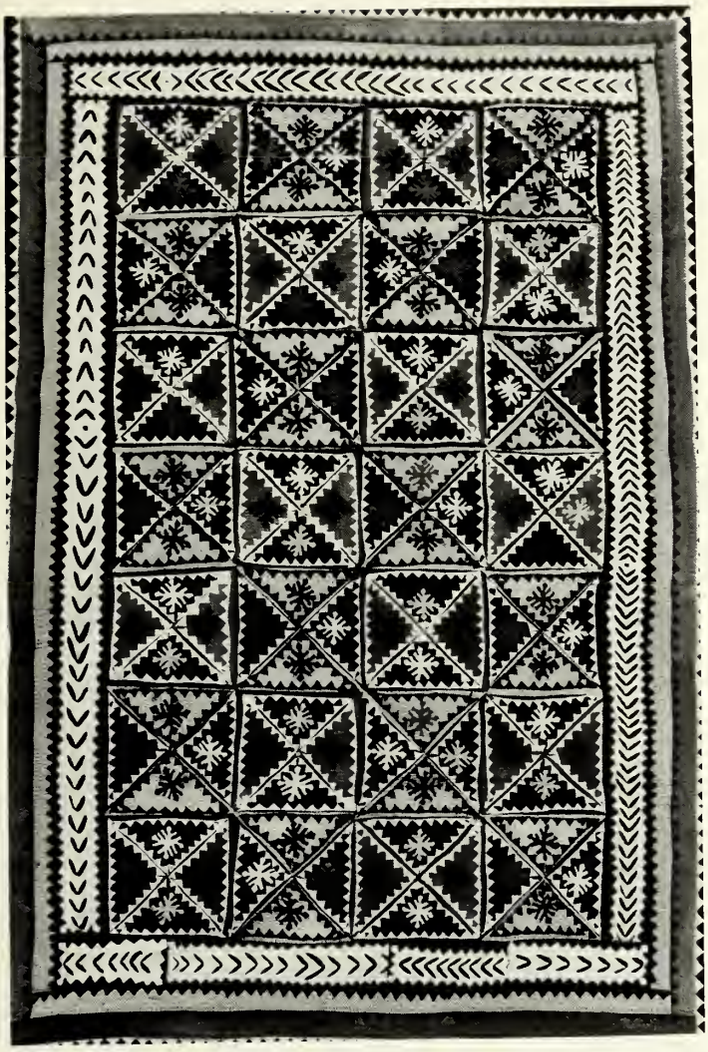
Bust of a Dancer
Thomas Peterson: Recent Works



The Cornell Art Center is a focal point for students, faculty and members of the community who share an appreciation for the visual arts. It contains classrooms where students learn history, theory and studio methods.

The Center also hosts an accredited museum. This year exibits included; a selection of american illustrations from the Charles E. Woodsby Collection; Art of the Dowry: Women's Crafts of the Sind Desert; Tom Peterson: Recent Works; Ancient Art from Cyprus; Arthur Gregorian Collection of Oriental Rugs; and Everett Raymond Kinstler, Portraits, Landscapes and Studies.

ORGANIZATIONS

Tomokan

Looking back at what previous editors have said when they have finished the task of creating a yearbook, I've noticed a common feeling about the position of editor: it's a tough job, but an enjoyable experience and well worth the effort. This year was no exception. We, as a staff, have had more than our share of deadline crises and problems to overcome, but we faced the challenges and had fun doing it.

There are a few people I would like to especially thank: Grey Squires, for her help with organization, layout, and efficient burning of the trash; John Flittner, for his invaluable help with photography (Don't worry John, we'll find those missing negatives someday); Dan Richards, for his advice and notes of undying support; Darcy Jackson, for her help with the various sections and ability to keep me from getting to unnerved over the small problems; Ober Tyus, for his honest criticisism; and Jerry Gladstein, for his help and support.

In creating this year's Tomokan we have attempted to produce a lasting memory of Rollins during 1982-83 that may be enjoyed for many years to come. We believe that we have succeeded and hope that you share in our enthusiasm.

Student Government

Predictably, the "all new" student government handled their nutcutting decisions with the inspired ruthlessness and bureaucratic savagery they demonstrated in their campaigns and personal lives. After they decided that R.O.C. and John Langfitt would get their cash to go to the beach once in a while, the senators passions turned to alcohol. Some screamed that no student money should be used to damage the tender livers of freshmen. Others protested the intrusive party policies. Finally, alcohol was successfully thrown off the Senate floor and put back in the glasses of the Senators.

Attendance tapered off after the tough decisions on WPRK and the library hours, but a new surge of enthusiasm came with the Spring when the Senate tried to stay the state drinking age at 19 and keep the good spirits on campus.

The officers worked relatively hard and managed to keep their sanity by taking themselves too seriously and making time for more pleasant things.

Jenny saw to it that Paul handled the meetings with firm parliamentary procedure while putting up with this informal style when things could get done easier without "the book."

Anne somehow survived the student center director's curse, keeping a high energy level all the way through, while never seeming to burn out.

Brad handled the finance committee with inspired ruthlessness, always posing the question, "How will this benefit the students?"

Steve kept the $190,000 budget well under control and in his spare time enjoyed imported wines and his girlfriend.

Paul's favorite activities included touring the dorms, writing speeches, and harrassing whoever happened to be picking on the students.

Christie and Amber put up with the whole crew, and any credit that might be given to this years government, should be thrown their way.

The Senate's critics will say they didn't do all they could have done, but no one can say that they didn't give it their best shot or that they didn't have a great time doing it!

Student Center

It's been an exciting and hectic year for the Student Center Board of Directors. Chairman of the Board, Anne Kelley (who's been known to take long vacations) opens every meeting with the statement, "I promise this will be a short meeting!", to which everyone responds with a justified groan of disbelief. Dr. Greyson however, has found a way to make the meetings short by arriving late and leaving early. A normal meeting goes as follows:

Michele Krebs — Uh . . . at the Halloween Dance somebody stole the bottles of champagne, while I was dancing.

Sue Strickroot — U.C.F. told me not to put up any concert posters out there, so I went out there and did it anyway.

Fifi Max — I've tried calling Springfield College for three weeks and nobody's home!

Marina Nice — C'mon Anne, do you really think that the author of the Preppy Hanbook, would be an appropriate lecturer?!?

Dedrick Owens — Sorry Anne . . . I just forgot all about the meeting last week!

Dr. Starling — (He never says much!)

Dave Lord — Could Yours Truly make a suggestion?

John Wright — Now kids. We're all adults here and I think we can handle our finances a little more responsibily!

Elena Silverstein Starson — You guys, I really think Anne has a point!

Black Student Union

Once again folks, Black Student Union comes to you in black (and white!). Throughout the year, our group attempts to add a bit of color to the cultural atmosphere of Rollins. In case you were wondering, the Black Student Union is open to the entire campus. All individuals are welcome. After all, some of our best friends are white!

Student Court

The Student Court, often known as the Student Hearing Board, is the judicial section for the Student Association.

Publications Union

The Publication Union is the body governing all the publications at Rollins. It is composed of the editors of R-times, Brushing, the Sandspur, and the Tomokan.

Sandspur

The Rollins Sandspur, Flordia's most notorious rag, was established in 1884 with the following banalities:

Posthumous yet lively, creative yet insipid, fine-tuned and out-of-focus yet as annoying and superfluous as the name implies, inept in battle and, therefore, without peer, plain-looking and insignifigant, all these may be focused upon writ to be among the unfortunate qualities of the Sandspur.

E.C.O.

The Environmental Conservation Organization (ECO), is an education-oriented body, dedicated to the preservation of the integrity of our national environment.

Annual activities include a campus-wide energy conservation contest, an instructive canoe trip down the Wekiva River, and an extensive series of lectures and discussions. Ongoing activities include the Earth Day Extraviganza, community paper drive, and assistance to local environmental groups in their undertakings.

On the corner of Chase and Fairbanks sits the ECO house (Mathews House) where a number of members live in an atmosphere more conducive to our cause. House members manage an organic garden in the back yard and are in the process of converting the house from the use of conventional electricity to solar power.

Brushing

Brushing is the sole creative medium for the individual at Rollins to express himself or herself in a magazine visually or verbally. We appreciate the generous amount of artistic material we received this year from the Rollins community. It was this creative and imaginative input that produced two quality issues this year.

R-Times

R-times is an annual student publication containing the Rollins calendar of events, Student Bill of Rights, Student Association Constitution, and other helpful information.

Campus Ministry

The members of the Campus Ministry Team provide spiritual guidance for students of various faiths. Through programs of worship and study, the ministers encourage moral and intellectual growth in the Rollins community.

Chapel Deacons

The chapel Deacon work to plan and carry out all chapel activities. Their duties include participation in worship services as ushers and readers, supporting several foster children and hosting chapel receptions.

Choir

The Rollins College Chapel Choir is the largest permanent student organization at Rollins. Along with the 60 student members, the choir also has Rollins' faculty, staff, and alumni among its membership. The choir is directed by Alexander Anderson. The choir performed works by Haydn, commemorating the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of his birth, and by Stravinsky, celebrating the hundredth anniversary of his birth. The group also performed works by Mozart and Beethoven, and, of course, sung beautifully at the Christmas Vespers service. The choir members are awaiting their summer tirp to Europe, on which they will spend three weeks touring and performing in Britain and Scotland.

Circle K

The community service organization has been quite different this year — Maybe it had to do with the fact that most of the club was in Europe this fall — or maybe because most of those in Europe were also the officers. We got a great bunch of freshmen who pitched in when it came time to trick or treat with the faculty's children. Somehow we managed to clean up the French House after our party ... It's too bad we had all that wine & cheese "left over." Conventions? And who said that we can't write songs!

Orientation Staff

During the week before fall classes begin, freshmen and transfer students have the opportunity to "make themselves at home" at Rollins. These students involved try to make new students feel at home in their new environment as well as enjoy their new home and school.

Fine Arts House

Fine Arts House has talent
(they show it)
And they want all the campus to know it
They're dancers and drummers
Some singers (some hummers)
And artists and actors and poets.
Some live in Rex Beach,
this is true
Some in Pinehurst, Elizabeth, too.
All students are invited
(No one is slighted)
From off campus
There's even a few.
A few times a year they perform
And they'll soon
take the arts world by storm
(Watch them and see)
We're sure you'll agree
Fine arts is more than a dorm.

Newman Club

The Newman Club is for the Catholic students of Rollins College. Its purpose is to bring together those students to form a united Catholic atmosphere.

Pinehurst

Pinehurst members work to involve students in the current events surrounding Rollins and the world. Their programs include guest speakers, debates, competitions, and dorm activities.

International Club

The International Club is a group of students interested in promoting understanding of different cultures. This group sponsors a series of events and activities throughout the year including dances, movies, lectures, exhibitions, and cultural exchange activities. In the past, the club has sponsored International Day for the entire campus. This has been a day of exhibitions and culinary art from many different lands.

J.S.L.

The Jewish Student League is Rollins' Hillel organization. This organization attempts to provide various cultural and educational activities for the entire Rollins community. In the past it has celebrated Israel's Independence Day and provided cultural films, concerts, dances and bagel Brunches. In addition, it has celebrated Passover and Chanukah with the community.

Ireland

Each fall, Rollins students participate in overseas programs of study in Ireland. These enjoyable opportunities for travel provide the chance for many students to broaden their education away from the Rollins campus.

Australia

Each fall, Rollins students participate in overseas programs of study in Australia. These enjoyable opportunities for travel provide the chance for many students to broaden their education off of the Rollins campus.

R.O.C.

R.O.C.: A coed organization dedicated to the outdoors.

Surf club: Nice take off and dive Randy.

Wakiva overnight canoe trip, (alias survival trip): 27 miles of freezing, monster bread, Indian mounds, and "mud."

Ichetucknee tubing trip: "When the going gets weird, the weird turn pro." Nice one Drac.

Cumberland Island: Carnegie Mansions, Son of Hermit, Grandson of Hermit, Wild Mustangs on the beach. Strange sounds in the woods. Great weather predictions John. Stay off the dunes ECO Joe.

Dive Club: Troy Springs was only 3½ hours away this year. Dave — shoot any flares off lately? Godfather's in Gainesville is still losing money on their salad bar, I wonder why?

Shell Island: A corporate R.O.C., ECO, and B.S.U. teaching endeavor for upward bound students. Ten garbage bags!

Surf Club trips: Killer waves and intense tubes man.

White water canoe trip: Sliding rock, devil's courthouse rock climb, Chatooga white water run, Deliverance revisited, Home cooked meals at Dillard house, Daffy blows beads.

Outdoor Games: With pigs and goebels win.

R.O.C. House: Here now and here to stay! "nice wall!"

Rollins Players
Theta Alpha Phi

The following are the minutes of a typical Rollins Player's meeting reprinted for your entertainment.

Quiet please Linda! Anita, stop laughing, just wait till Dallas Theatre Center finds out who you really are! Hey "Skinny" where's your old lady? So, Nasti Gasti, I hear you've joined the Disease of the Month Club! And Debbie, we don't care how many back walk-overs you have to do. Morgan — go play with someone your own age. And Laura, go buy a house (of blue leaves). Oh Tarnow, If you could talk, what would you say? Rockie phone home. Some champagne Karin?

Or a dance with the bride? Can you please turn down the "Babs," Mr. "George and Ira" Kavanaugh! Excuse me Raggedy Sandy, but where's Andy? JacQUI, our resident J.A.P., has just sewn another actor to the grand drape! Grant, still a giant in the bedroom closet? Oh John N., where's my other painted drop? No, Caro, I have no cheesburgers or grape sodas, besides, that doesn't befit a deb. Does anyone know if Jackie Lee Witt the fourth is auditioning for "Brodie?" I know she'll "whip it." I hear you give good ear, Pat. And I hear you're living in Pinehurst Miss gradstud Cidley! Peter: why? Oh go away ya hoozier! "Here's the thing," Carolyn, have some chiffon! Now everyone shut up, your president knows what she's doing because she's in a sorority! Theta Alpha Phi: Or are we?

Resident Aides

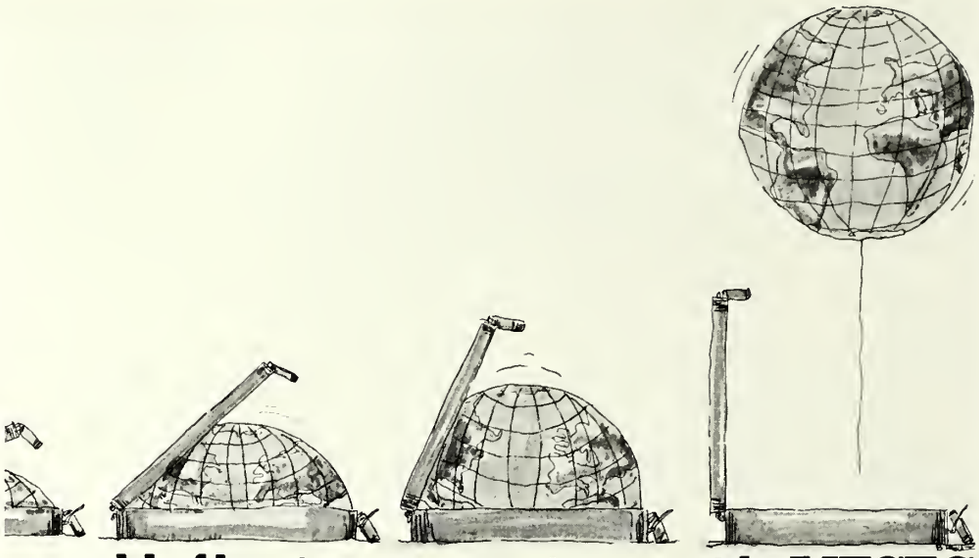
The Rollins Resident Aides provide leadership in each of the dorms living units as counselors and social leaders. The RA's keep students informed of the latest campus activities and serve as examples of the responsible student.

Head Residents

The Head Residents of each dorm work to make sure that residence hall life meets the needs of the students. By serving as dorm co-ordinators, these students promote communication between their dorm and the rest of the campus.

AIESEC

AIESEC, the International Association of Students in Economics and Business Management, has successfully survived its first year at Rollins. The highlights reflect the true benefits of the organization:
— Two foreign trainees now working in Orlando.
— Two Rollins students planning on working for one year in Sweden and Latin America. "Hey Tom, meet you in Kentucky, 1984! Brian."
— Road trips to Baton Rouge and Nashville. "We wrote the book on sleepless weekends."
— Reception event with EPCOT's World Fellowship Showcase students (80% of those supplied by AISEC).
— New Years in Detroit, Michigan: August in Sterling Forest New York.
— And the countless situations in which AIESEC members have been exposed to practical business experiences.



a world of business experience with AIESEC

We can send you to any one of 58 countries for international business training before you start your career.

See your campus AIESEC representative.

Pub Staff

The Pub has maintained for yet another semester, rendering quality service to those who frequent the establishment. Special thanks to Mary who kept us for hours while looking for things for us to clean and to check although we're not sure why. We would also like to especially recognize: John H. — who lives there; Pat — for his million dollar questions; Steve — alias Luigi; Dave G. — who's full of bull doo-doo; Kelly — because she loves the drinks window; Robin — for V. stories and the t's; Becky — for her ghetto blaster; and the rest of the staff for their patience and hard work in the face of a lot of B.S.

Sullivan Board

Leaders of the student organizations comprise the Sullivan Board. It functions to advise the Campus Ministers and Sullivan House with ideas and needs of the Campus community. The Board acts as a mediator between administration and students. It is a sounding board to eleviate pressures.

C.O.C.O.

English Club

The English Club was established to promote literary awareness on the Rollins campus. Academic in its interests, but social in its orientation, the English Club seeks to generate and maintain interaction among English students and faculty beyond the classroom. Activities include author luncheons, panel discussions, William Shakespeare's Birthday Party, student and faculty readings, and the annual English Department picnic.

Philosophy And Religion

The Philosophy and Religion Club was organized to provide an opportunity for persons interested in these subjects to participate in extracurricular investigation of them. The club sponsors speakers, discussions and also presents papers.

WPRK

A.C.T.

The ACT provides peer counciling to support the faculty program. Through the examples set by ACT members, students can gain insight as to what makes a successful, well-rounded student.

Alpha Phi — Goody Two Shoes?! Don't drink, Don't smoke, What do you do?!

DEBBIE competed with K.C. for sleeping the most hours during a semester. Must be those late nights with Zang, huh DEB? Speaking of K.C., CFPM or what? Woh Can It Be Now? CATHY finally got off the phone and into the chapel with PAT for a guest spot on the"Newlywed Game". Meanwhile FOOTPRINTS is playing the "Dating Game", tired of ending up in STICKY situations. But didn't it Hurt So Good? BJQ came out of the closet and even though TIGER LADY was too tired, she managed to achieve HELLBABE status. ANGITIQUE went to Hollywood as Mrs. Cleavage, but still kept residency at TKE. Hey RIA, why do you laugh all the time? Must be the stuff you cut in lab. KIMI, President of BMFC at Rollins, tried to recruit members earlier this year. Looks like Eloise became the Vice-President. HELEN maintains standards by sleeping on Crawford's floor. ("Bite that muscle!") And VAL, how's Fred in bed, I bet Barbie's jealous!! DANA while fighting world hunger managed to be the best PT at Rollins, and JUDY still tried to get over JD, pretty hard though huh, Judy? TERZAH, don't come home at 7 a.m. with tousled hair, use some discretion and comb it first, O.K.? Hey LOUISE, did GW measure up to those pictures in the bathroom? Her little sister, LYNN was busy measuring depth this year. Headrush or what? By the way KIM, I know his name starts with a K, but is it Kent or Kevin? Sue T. is still trying to see how many beers her mug can hold, but there doesn't seem to be a bottom. And LORELIE are you still into DAVID'S Cookies? Oops, wrong David! LYNNE continues to serve as well off the court as on, I thought you and BR were just good friends? And MELANIE how do those ice teas help your study habits? TAMI held on to sixteen as long as he could, but was she ever sweet sixteen? Hey JENNIFER Q., we hear you like playing with those tennis guys, but they aren't into Love? Maybe JENNIFER R. serves better? ANNIE was blinded by a Sig Ep and it took a KA to help her see the light. Was there a BEER in the fridge? DALE (B.B. Jr.) is probably borrowing GREY'S room again, are you really a red head? Only her hairdresser knows for sure!! And SNOW WHITE, don't let the wicked witch of the closet feed you any rotten apples. SLEEPING BEAUTY, meanwhile, awaits her prince charming. Earth to CAROLINA, is it those soccer players that put you on a cloud?! And LAURIE, next pledge Saturday, bring your own shoes. And JENNY L. our hardest-working officer what's cooking with those G-MEN??!!

And to our seniors, don't forget, soon you'll be singing, 'We are the alumni, we make . . .

KAΘ

Picture this: 70 wrinkly women reunited for their chapter's centennial at Rollins College . . .

Dr. Brown is here with her face lifting gear (thank God). Nurse Madge is spacy, but her love life's still racy. Pebble Beach Pam now uses a cart, walking the course is too hard on her heart. Cassie arrives with her new diet plan, wearing blue and green to catch that geriatric man. We guess that Kelly's still with Adam, in 50 years we haven't had a look at him. First Lady Barbie and her Malibu Ken have been spending at Bergdorf's on our tax dollars again. Ph.D. CVB arrives with Chris on her bike, since she told TD to take a hike. Cindi Miller we hear is still in the-at-rics, but instead of X-rated it's Norwegian geriatrics. Polly and Popp came in a 'hobblin', after 50 years they're still at Rollins. Rely on Alicia, what a groovy chick! It didn't take art to make her eccentric. Ex-President Kim walks into the party. Her foreign affairs haven't kept her from Marty. Archerd Ann is back in the yellow kitchen. She's no longer house manager, but she's still bitchin'. Kare lives in Australia — will we see her again? We hear she was kidnapped by Aussie men. Live from New York Tally's name is still in lights. 50 years of childbirth have made her quite a sight. Willis Designs are on all of our bods. The clothes look great even though we're all blobs. Of course, Grand Boo-Bah Kay has a firm position. After 50 years she never married the physician. It's pizza for which Robin still cares, but at 70 it's hard to roll down the stairs. Sailor Surpee arrives after 50 years at sea, fashionably late in her Izod nigh-tie. AIESEC was once Dutter's intense sensation, now it's the Intellectual Space Cadet Corporation. Twyman's still as crazy as can be. She still prefers to sleep in trees. Alison has settled for Todd because none of the Japanese men had his bod. E.F. Harlan finally passed her CPA. She came back to Rollins to see if the rules are obeyed. Avery and David walk in with a tan. They can't do it without a fan. KA Patti comes rush-ing in — Happy Hour at Albertson's is where she's been. Krulewitch is absent, she's missed her plane. Obviously things are still the same!Carolyn and John are together at last. All of her wild crushes are now in the past. Nancy Godiva comes prant-zing in. Saddling horses has been her biggest sin. Lois Lalos flys in from space. She's finally caught up with her Superman's pace. Pami and Todd have started their own soap. By now he has the name right, so at least there's hope? Betty D. is now an Admiral's wife. When she's not out at sea, the Honda's her life. Diane S. now edits Teen Beat. She still thinks that boys are "ooh so neeat"! Pam Weiss went for a dip because page 20 was too much of a trip. Jeanne's still in fashion, oh what a plus. Being SP II, she's always made a fuss. Laurie S. has founded a cult to worship KAs, her incredible hulks. Trish B. now will only be seen wearin the latest designs by Great Dane Jeans. Jeanne Mapel arrived from Suburbia Land. She thinks events at Theta are SIMPLY grand. Pippa B. is on the run, despite Bob being double fun. Chris Berry has descended from Mt. Olympus. How nice after 50 years for you to come and visit us! We all remember fashion designer Kit — anyone with 6 dates has to be a hit. Emily G. still loves her Vas, but TGIF PDAs are so crass! At 70 our Inkspot has faded on the courts. Tennis is no longer her #1 sport. Brenda still hangs out at Goodlife's looking for older men. She doesn't care if they're 110. Lisa has kept a Low profile — even with dentures she can still smile. 50 years ago she was wholesome Jan, but now she met the toothpick man. A toast to our pledges, we're glad you're all here! Now we're all together, so we'll do our Theta cheer . . . ?

Raybans and lawn chairs; we're keeping the Kappa tradition, but since last years seniors we've had a few more additions. Casey, our prez., the date is set for June, so she says. Where are you going on your honeymoon — E.T.'s room? Pegatron, is J.C. moving up on the SOFT list? I guess there's nothing we've missed. P.S. You've only got six hours. Hend's got eyes for all the Chi-Psis. From looking she will not stop until she finds that one perfect jock. Hewitt, businessmen? Are you trying out the MRS degree again. Vanessa, what do you really do with all those carrots? "Can I've a bite?" Jeanne, Jeanne the sex machine, may seem cold as ice, but she really warms up to all the geise. Busch, your SAINT cycled back faster than hell, Could it be the wedding bell? Jo, once in a blue moon your warden lets you go, and you get wild and party — but then you always call Arty. Genovese, you're not normal — you're always drunk when you ask guys to the formal. Smurf — does your big "O" not come enough this year? Margaret, your TREAT was really sweet, but with PAT you can't hold back. Diana, from marriage you shy — could it be you're looking for another guy? Lillian, is it right that you still wear white? Morcott, Hughes it going with Jackson and Weaver? Gail, is still a Mr. Ed favorite and a KA fan, but was the K.A. really stand for? Stacy does EVAN make it seem like heaven? Ashlie requires no toddy, 'cuz all the boys desire her body. C.J. has your heart been SWINDLED to New York. R.A. Linda — "she's in my unit." Wattley is there going to be more than just being sisters in the bond? Zuanich, did Rolf leave you unsatisfied . . . we know otherwise. Alexis, have you been Missin because of Clinton. Kris no longer needs her glasses, 'cause she's so close to Jim Vlassis. Barb, we know that being pre-med is harder to be done than said. Ruth, we know that soon you're going to let it go. Tammy when do you let go? When you do, will you let us all know? Lynn, what's in St. Augustine? Kristi and M.B. What a pair . . . have you begun to share? Smooth sailing. Sue P., there must be more to Phil than what you let us see. Anne where's your man . . . Boston? Kelly, is it because of Charlie Brown that you're never around? Mr. McTeir why aren't you ever here? Lizzy Bleke are shots not your style, since they kept you in the bathroom for quite awhile? Mols, are you dreaming about KA halls? Shipman, all night and all day, you and KEN always play! Jennifer and Maura, how bout those party permits? Justine, the jazzercise queen. Max, keep your clothes on next time you're drinking wine. Julie is staying slim the West Indies doctor's prescription! Karen and Lisa have something in common, but whose pear tree is the PARTRIDGE in? Kim, Rick does the trick but what about that night with Mike. Last but not least our pledge class who are the best from all the rest. And here's a toast to all of you who support us in all we do . . . Chuck, Laura Brown, and all our alums. Remember, remember: GIVE US WHISKEY, GIN, OR RYE, WE'LL BE KAPPAS TILL WE DIE!!

P.S. IT REALLY DOES MATTER.

NCM

NCM — (eN cEE eM), Non Compis Mentis. 1. not of sound mind 2. a group of girls who like to go for it 3. HELLBABES

Once again we amazed the campus, faculty and administration by making it through the year with FLYING colors. We love living in the mansion and our esteemed neighbors the CLUBBERS help keep us safe from all the weirdos (transvestites, security, etc.) wandering around campus.

Where to begin? With our beloved President of course. Tracey really set an example this year by constant studying only to take weekend breaks with Buddy's visiting friend and once to feed the cats. Also occupying a prime position on the first floor is Karen D. who spent too much time working on plays and not enough time playing. Moving up one floor let's try knocking on Terry's door but don't be surprised if she doesn't SPRING up to answer. Across the hall is Laura B., when she's not playing SIMON Says she's using her counselor aibilities to try and keep the campers under control. Speaking of campers, a nightly bed check might reveal an extra SHADE in Stacey's room while Lisa has been too Jolly to even bother coming home. And Jennifer, how many times have you really been to Ft. Lauderdale with Marci — next time take your drums with you. Marci's been busy with her accounting, she's already a good BILL collector. Poor Pixie has got a terminal case of computeritis, although she found time to go to the PARK a couple times. Rhonda spent at least one weekend discovering that single beds are much more fun once you get everyone rearranged. Speaking of arrangements, Melissa's cruising seemed to end with much BRUISING, although we were all suspicious about what was going to happen at the bar at Bailey's. By the way Laurie, is it Tim or Pete? Will we ever find out whether diamonds are forever? Lisa VT will get by without too much hassle this year — you'll be sadly missed. Of course we'll miss Karen also, but the business partnership should keep you around. The real question is how long Raycliff can hold out ... We'll have Dawn around for another year to paint the building. Will Santiano help you in your endevours, or is it going to be enough to have Jim locked in your room? Kyle, on the other hand is having to lock them OUT of her room. Somehow we know you'll come out on top in the end. Lori will have other decisions to make. Are XTC pills enough to reselve ethical dilemmas? When you've tried everything else, where do Danny, Michael, and Alden fit together? Wendy spent another year working on her KA crushes, having not been able to keep Doug from passing himself around. Robin had a bout with independance, she was PHILled with indecision but now she's left wondering what really MARRers. Kathy seems to have decided what is important, but is married life as good as married men? Lizz, on the other hand, is married to her literacy ... are you always settling into bed with a good book? Even Blair seems to Make it out from time to time, but goodness sure makes you a silly drunk. Speaking of going out, Caroline do you ever make it out? And will we ever find out how you REALLY got that black eye in New York? Of course there are things about Shauna we may never find out, or will it finally DON on us? Cecilia's been hiding in a DOUG out because of those loud crickets outside her window. And of course we'll give a special mention to all our hoovers in Ireland and Australia — it's great to have you back. And to all you pledges ... it's up to you to keep the NCM tradition alive, and we have no doubt that you'll suceed ... GO FOR IT!

Special Thanks: Bailey's, the Monday Night Club, Carol Anne, Johnny Diamond, Campers, Cris Fontz, XTC, Jane Fonda, All my Babies, the X-Club, pledges, the return of the flag, and most of all, K.C.

Special no Thanks: Campers at 3 a.m., the third floor bathroom, and D.M.

It hardly seems a year has gone by since my last return, nevertheless it was once again time to make my visit to the House.

No one ever thought the master could've been clipped, but after the dreaded call from Gainesville we all knew he was whipped.

We never thought the Waddles would become soft. After 5 years of fishing, baseball and hardness he can still always secure P.P. in his loft.

Who can ever forget Chumley as a striptease star the night of P.M. when he fell off the bar.

We all knew Marbles as the king of the dance floor; its too bad he couldn't take F.H. in the back door.

With girl in pocket give Jeff a case and he goes off like a rocket.

Otter couldn't get a Rollins girl in his bed so he packed his bags and went off to Hilton Head.

Here's to Rick, Chi Psi true and blue; America's finest sportsman: jogginh, boating and camping. There's nothing he won't do.

Maus was known as the "masked Mutant" in the jello ring. But is better known for his good thing.

Hugo came back this summer looking like a clunck and somehow he found someone to share his bunk.

To Max every girl was his dream, as long as he could use his can of whipped cream.

We all thought Fred's love life was dead until that classic night in Digger's bed.

Kenny kept in shape with his daily jog. Now he gets his exercise with a weekly hog.

We all thought that the rockhead was in control and never rude until he put 5 stiches in the head of Jude.

Everyone is always climbing out on the roof to have a look to see if Cruiser is with granny, Tracey, or a book.

The hidden wonders of Charles will never cease. After Gators and booze, he and B. will always end up making peace.

Darrow came back this year even more snide. But at the P.M. party he lost all his pride.

It took until before Turkeyday for Bruce to become tall when after the triangle party he needed someone to spike his volleyball.

Coach likes to drink and lost it in the trash especially when things go wrong with red woman and Ash.

Tier went to Church St. with Judy, his rose only to return home alone to expose.

Menyhart was known as the human trunk. If you bang on his door you know B. is in his bunk.

About Keith's hair one should never rave especially since he spent most of the term training his pet to go New Wave.

The Chrome Dome was a quiet guy as all could see until he curled his hair and busted out with the gross brother's three.

When Dave hears those famous moans and groans he knows E-Man is in his room bouncing on some bones.

About Glenski's B-ball game nobody should ever quibble but argue a serious point with him and he's guaranteed to Sybil.

Rookie has never been known to be too complex; he takes pride in his books instead of good sex.

Digger's basketball game is far from dead. It is his weekend nights that are always spent in someone elses bed.

Watkins at the house never leaves anything unsaid. But he always has a place reserved for him off-campus in his wife's bed.

Squid is so different and his integrity is never left alone. Everybody keeps asking him to Phone Home.

As I reached the end of my journey I look at the future faces to whom one can only say: If you ain't a Chi Psi you ain't s t!!

The boys of old K.A. have battled through yet another year of dames, damage, and drunkeness. The mansion, standing closer to the sunny southern shores of Lake Virginia, is returning to the days of Gong Shows, room parties, and ALZO. The Seniors have weathered house changes, persecutions, slanderous tales, and scandals to maintain that strong K.A. tradition (and prime housing — thanks Barry). Ladies first — Geoff Paul, direct from Hollywood, has just starred in his first big picture, "The Last Rollins Virgin." Mike Cassidy lives by four letter — N, C, M, and X. Eric Schott has been fine — NANCing in Tampa, but here in Winter Park he has been seen with jelly on his face. Todd Payne, after exhausting all the sorority houses, has become quite the DARYL-licked. Todd "Vinnie" Demario, the ELLIEquent Italian, pushed Luther's HANLEY-Davidson into the lake. Fred Weaver returned from the Rape Crisis Center after an ambush by the mystery woman. Big T, Coon, resident water skier, has improved in parting STICKY water. Drew Hill is forever reFERing to rythmic motions. Big Bob Jackson the resident ORGAN grinder, has given recitals campus-wide. Dave "Mom" Goggin has many warm buns in the oven with a two week turnover. Now as we leave the mansion in the hands of morons, we must at least make an attempt to acknowledge the following — Wes "Swampitch" Ball, Pete "PupTent" Carlton, Tom "Brewer" Hauske, Tom "Maddog" Minter, Scoots — enough said, Rikus "No Problem" Vanderlee, Craig "Wee-Wee" Briggs, Bob "MADGEning" Hughes, Evan "More than Cindy?" Bernstein, Big Head Ed Lutz, Steve "Chicken Choker" Donaldson, Lester "The Molestor" Joseph, Chris "Beaver" Bailson, Brad "Super Susy" Gray, Dave "Dogface" Boozer, Diego "Can I Borrow Your Girlfriend" Garcia, Brian "Stouch" Talgo, Mark "BooBear" Meyersfield, Unit "U-Haul" Douglas, Ted "Body Beautiful" Williams, Dag "Pocket Pool" Pierson, James "Fascist" Frakelton, Sam "Headbutt" Spade, Ron "I'm Sick" Presswood, Pat "President" McNeil.

P.S. Long Live Daytona, Schwillers, Shredding, Boxers, T.M., Cassa G's, the Diner, The Shades, Jelly-vision, Lotteries, and of course MAD DOG. And remember, NO FAT CHICKS!!

The question of 1982-83 is not whether we had a few parties, broke a few rules, and took a few too many liberties with our female guests . . . we did. While Skol inhaled most of his fall term allowance, Matt came out with a new book, 101 Things to do with High School Girls. Dear President Reagan,

Once again I find myself reporting on a fraternity, which like its nation, is in a tumultuous state of ups and downs. I guess the reason for this could be most simply stated by the fact that our president, Jeffrey Miller Smith, idolizes you tries to follow in your every footstep. This past semester Jeff has been looking for his own little "Nancy", however, in failure — he often turns to his lil' ginnie poo, which has prevented him from aging more than he already has. Perhaps you could send him the name of your hair stylist since Brylcreem does not seem to be doing the trick. Just as you have firm control of your cabinet, President Smith also keeps his executive council in line. Although this can sometimes be difficult when you have a vice-president such as Schaff. As Rush Chairman he is assisted by his spitoon and dip. After all didn't George Bush carries a spitoon at Brezhnev's Funeral? Then again — who needs to be fashionable when you sport a Presidential GPA. I, as secretary, handle all correspondence with assistance of my own personal sexretary. She efficiently takes diktation through the use of shorthand — "ooohh baby what she does to me!" While Reaganomics is destroying the economy, our treasurer, Bob, has a tight grip on our funds. He is very good at juggling figures — especially hefty ones. Our historian, the Stoffer, seems to be making his own history in Room 20. He still hasn't not put his whip down. The only part he has yet to figure out is how to "get into" the Vatican. Our hypophetes, Mr. Poverman, is a past movie star. You should know his from his lead role as Jody in "Family Affair." When he is feeling a "high." Our sargeant-at-arms this year, The Spirited Sultini, is enclosing a picture of himself with girls, girls, girls. He has personally autographed this picture with his famous motto "me, me me." Last, but not least, of our eight officers is Vave, thepledge trainer. His job has been an easy one thus far since he has only one lowly pledge during fall semester. We are sure he will be a good influence on the new pledge class. Despite this good influence we have our share of Senior headaches. Actually this can be taken literally with the "Dog" who is always sick. But this gives him plenty of time to contemplate about his role models such as Nietzche, Dali, and Lassie. Dali would be proud of his gallery. Maybe "Dog" would be happier if we packed him up and sent him to the Nursing Home. Also, in a constant state of contemplation we have Carson, who is still wondering how Margaret knew he was hung like Mr. Ed. And on a more personal note, Mr. Reagan, Carson would just like to say "Hi." Tim has become quite the video fanatic; his room is wall to wall electronics. But there is more electricity flowing than that produced by the monitor. Because, when he is not playing with his joystick, his joystick is being played with! You would be proud to know that a fellow TKE is president of the student government. Like you, T.J. excels in his oratorical skills and his words have a tremendous impact on his fellow classmates as is evidence by the phenominal phone bills across campus. President Reagan, when was the last time that you phoned home? As a fellow actor, Charles, would like to share this bit with you . . . "Today is the first day of the rest of your life". This philosoph guides him in all aspects of his life on the football field and in the bedroom. Senior, Evan Press, is our Little Sister Liaison. He keeps all our little sisters fulfilled and helps to guide them in satisfying the brothers. Now, a few words about the rest of the brothers. Pete was kidnapped earlier this year but the kidnappers paid us to take him back. The Boiler would like to challenge you to a tennis match. Todd would like a position in your cabinet, as long as he can bring Sid to the White House. And for your information . . . Vass is currently writing a book entitled Public Display of 1001 Sexual Positions. Rich is currently reading two novels, How to Pick up Women and How to Deal with Rejection. Randall is currently reading the Spanish edition of How to Deal with a Neurotic Roommate. John spends his time looking and flexing in front of the mirror while Karim spends his time on the basketball court. And you would be proud to know that we converted a Pinehurstian, but he has Phi Mu tendencies. Once again we have a pledge class that will be sure to uphold the TKE spirit and brotherhood. However, your aid and support are always most wel-j come!

FACULTY

Thaddeus Seymour President

"This has been a particularly important year for Rollins College. We welcomed the freshman who will be seniors when we celebrate our Centennial in 1985, and we announced the Olin Library, which will be completed the year before. The changing face of the campus and the quickening approach of the Centennial signal continual progress for Rollins. These are exciting years.

Yearbooks come out in the spring, and they are bittersweet. The chronicle of organizations, teams, production, and the accomplishments of individuals is an exciting review of the year. On the other hand, it is a time for leave-taking, and all of us who stay behind will be sorry to send off the class of 1983. You have enriched this community with your talents and your friendship, and I wish you success and happiness in the years to come. Please stay in touch with Rollins and come back often."

Good Luck!

Robert D. Marcus, Vice-President for Academic Affairs and Provost

Robert F. Duvall, Vice-President for Development and College Relations

Jesse B. Morgan, Vice President and Treasurer

Roland J.B. Goddu
Acting Dean Of The College

"My two years as Dean of the College have been humbling and exciting. There is so much about Rollins that one learns in little bits and pieces. There are so many persons who commit an enormous amount of energy to the residential life of students: the academic, the social, the recreational. And it all goes on at once, everywhere with everyone involved.

One does not often have the opportunity to learn so much so quickly, see young persons mature, to see new ideas take form, to see old patterns take on new meaning, to see how people can work together to solve problems, to see old conflicts confronted and negotiated with honesty and humor. The class of '83 has provided much of this learning for which I thank them and wish them Godspeed."

Daniel R. Denicola

The antitheses of a liberally-educated person is a person who does what he does, believes as he does, because he knows no other way. The liberal arts curriculum introduces that person to alternative possibilities for thought and action (alternative modes of being, if you prefer the existentialist phrasing). Without such alternatives, his life prospects have little scope; with them, he is liberated, free to choose among the possibilities and thereby define himself and his way of live."

A. Arnold Wettstein
